

I am going to be brief and try not to be too coarse.

You should be ashamed of even thinking of overturning the "Do Not Call" Protection Act. You will be allowing an invasion of privacy. As an American and a Vietnam Veteran it is my right who I allow into my home, whether it be via the front door, the tv or the telephone.